What is The Deepest Acceptance Jeff Foster

And so the war is always an invitation back to this deepest acceptance. Suffering hurts, and the hurt points us home. There is a very beautiful word in the English language nostalgia and it means the pain of coming home . But it could also mean the discovery of home, even in the midst of pain . Because of course, home is always present, even in the midst of all those experiences you'd rather escape, just as the ocean is always present, in and as every wave.
